RABBI'S MESSAGE

One of the very meaningful readings contained in the Passover Haggadah, the prayer book used at the service in the home, is a Reflection on Matzah that I have always included in our Seder. It has been well received each year and speaks to us in contemporary terms. It takes the main symbol of the Seder and provides us with aspects of matzah other than food of the Israelites as they left Egypt. I hope that you will find it worthy of reading.

“We meet again after another year. You look much the same. With so many wrinkles in your face, you never seem to get any older. You never gain any weight either, but then again, I couldn’t imagine a fat matzah.

What is your secret? Why do we make a fuss about you? Unlike other mitzvot, it is not enough just to eat you, we must explain the whys and wherefores of matzah à la Rabbi Gamliel. You seem so simple, plain and flat. You would have been ignored by the palates of humankind except for your role in history. Your secret cannot be hidden inside of you for there is no room, and with all those holes, everything is revealed. Your outsides and your insides are the same. For a symbol of Freedom, you are not very impressive. You do not sparkle like wine, you are not sweet or delicious and sumptuous

SPRING FORWARD

by Jonathan Shapiro

As you all know by now, our offer to Rabbi Cece Beyer was rejected. Rejection is hard. It always has been and always will be. But we have not skipped a beat and have continued the search with optimism. Under the steady leadership of Sandra Beckman, the Search Committee immediately resumed its search and we are once again vetting resumes of potential candidates. I cannot thank everyone enough who served on the committee for their ongoing efforts and dedication in finding a new rabbi.

While it is going to take a little more time and effort, our patience will be rewarded. As someone reminded me, Rabbi Haaz was not the first person who was offered the position the last time this Congregation undertook a search, and that turned out pretty well for us. While disappointed, I am confident we will find the rabbi that is the absolute best fit for our congregation to help us spring forward.

Speaking of spring, it certainly helps that we are coming up on my favorite time of year.

like the festive meal. On a night of sumptuous rejoicing, you are just your simple self. Shouldn't Freedom have a more striking representative than you? And even that symbolism is confusing. For you are not only the dough which our ancestors did not have the time to let rise as they left Mitzrayim (Egypt) but you are also the bread of affliction which our ancestors ate as slaves.

You were there from the beginning to end. You who were the bread of slaves became the sustenance of a free people. From slave past to messianic future. All the blows of the taskmasters can be seen on your pockmarked surface; yet fragile as you are, you survived unbroken.

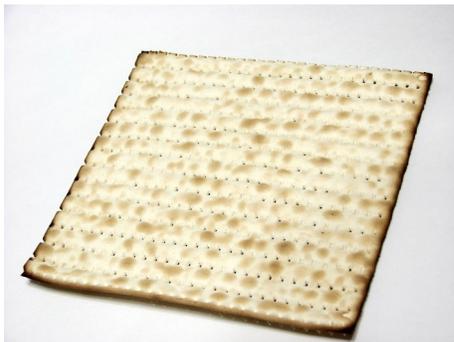

Thus, you remind us of our humble beginnings as slaves, and yet you show that the lowly, not just the high and mighty, can become free. You are the symbol of the possibility of change for all. You, matzah, are the focal point of the Haggadah, not the unmentioned leader Moses. For freedom is the kingdom of the free, its gates open for all.

Yet, free as you are, changed as you are, you look exactly the same as your slave self. For you watched yourself to prevent being contaminated with the yeast of pride, the lust for wealth, the thirst for praise. No water was allowed to puff you up artificially, to make you appear more than what you naturally are.

Simple, plain, and flat, matzah, the eternal symbol of freedom, is the antithesis of fine food and wine, for freedom lies in intoxication with an idea, not the self."

I hope that this reading will give you insight into the bread of affliction of Passover.

YOUR PRESENCE IS NEEDED

Adath Israel's morning minyan is in serious need of attendees! It requires 10 members in order for many prayers to be recited. Morning minyan is vital to the Adath Israel and the surrounding community especially essential for those wishing to say Kaddish for their loved ones or those in need of prayer for any reasons. Your being there is something important and sacred in Judaism.

We encourage everyone to try to attend once a week or twice a month. Services are at 8 AM Monday through Friday in the Nester Center followed by a simple free breakfast, Saturday at 9:30 AM in the synagogue and Sunday at 9 AM in the Nester Center. Services (except on Saturday) last between 20 - 45 minutes.

The Torah service is every Monday, Thursday and Saturday. The first Wednesday of the month Early Morning Risers minyan is at 7AM followed by a lovely Kiddush breakfast and Saturday services by a Kiddush luncheon.

PASSOVER – A CHARITABLE TIME ADATH ISRAEL MATZAH/MA'OT HITTIN

Your donation to The "Matzah Fund" assists those in our community without the resources necessary to make Passover a reality. Distribution priority is given to Adath Israel congregants with secondary distribution to other fellow Jews. Any funds in excess of need will be donated to Jewish charities for Passover allocation.

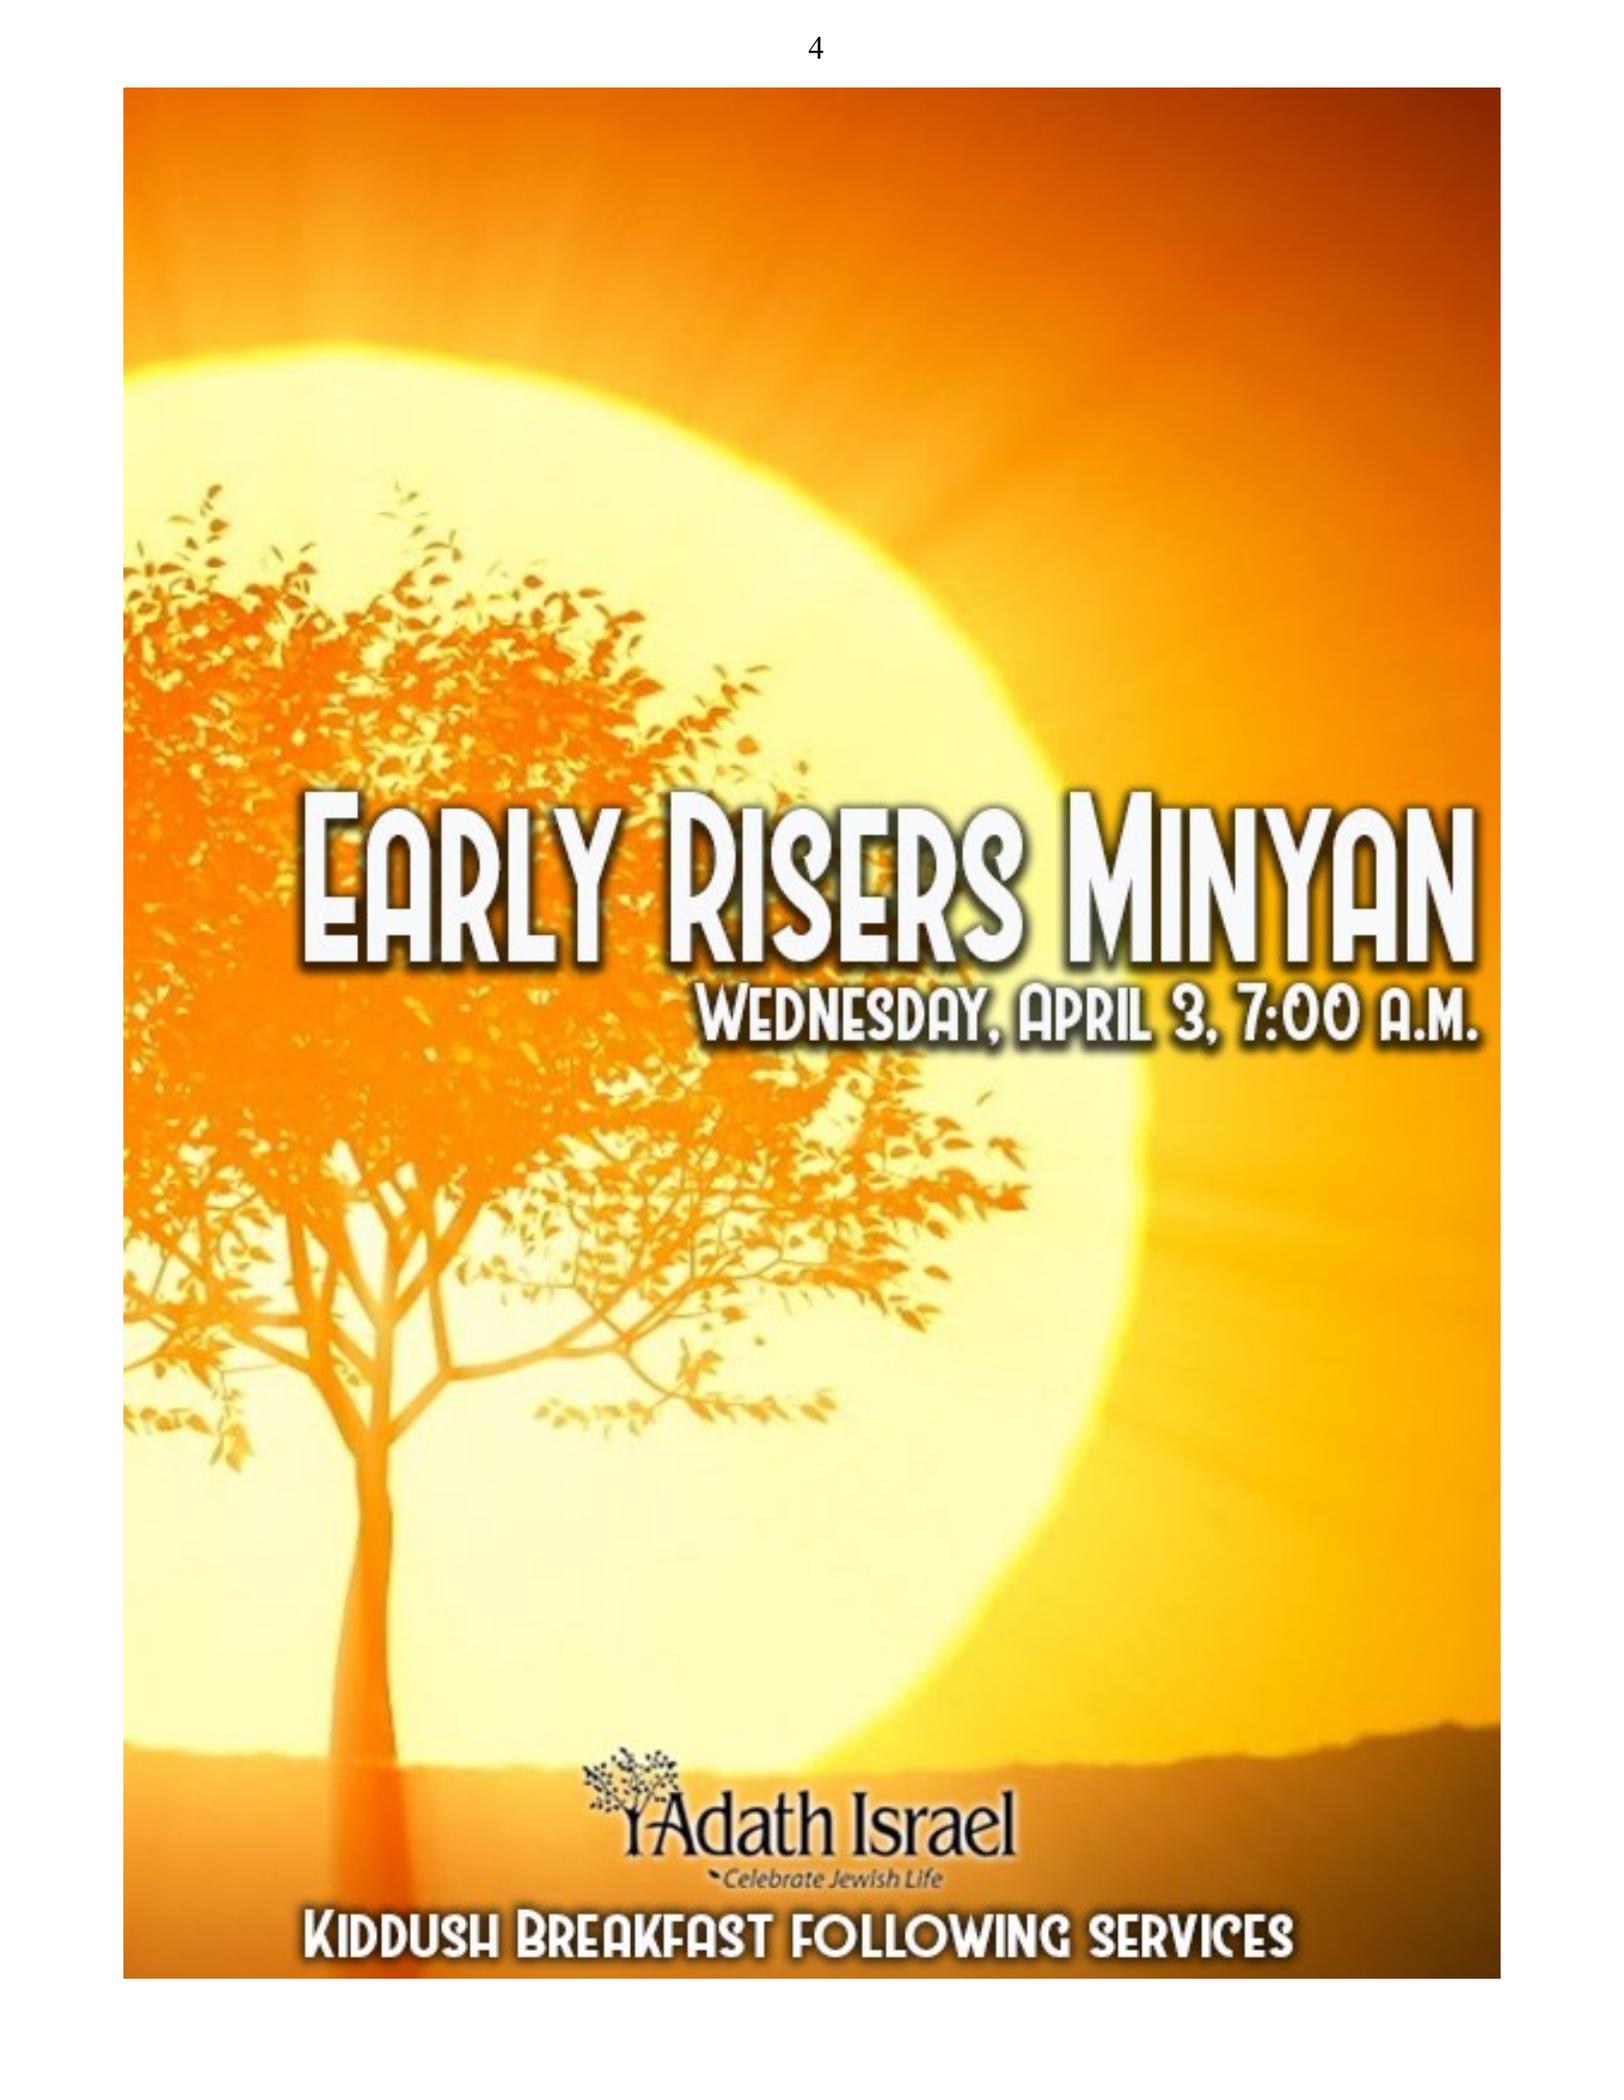

This Fund is self-liquidating, that is, all contributions will be allocated at Passover time with no continuing balance. Please be assured that all funds are allocated in the strictest of confidence.

Contribution checks should be made payable to Adath Israel (please put "Matzah Fund" on the memo line) and sent to the office by April 10, 2019, so that distribution can take place prior to Passover.

Leave your contribution with Joanna at the synagogue office or mail to:

Adath Israel
P.O. Box 337
Middletown, CT 06457

Finally, if you know of anyone that requires some assistance, please contact Joanna at office@adathisraelct.org or 860-346-4709.

KIDDUSH BREAKFAST FOLLOWING SERVICES

Although we had a relatively mild winter, there is nothing like feeling the warmth of the spring sun as it breathes new life into nature. I love watching the flowers bloom and the leaves begin to bud. Taking a deep breath and smelling the spring air. Riding my bike, feeling the wind in my face, and letting my mind go. It is a freedom I just cannot experience in the winter.

So what does that have to do with Congregation Adath Israel? As everyone knows, Passover is a spring festival celebrating our ancestors' freedom from slavery in Egypt and freedom as a nation under the leadership of Moses. Growing up, Passover was one of my favorite holidays. In fact, I loved it so much I married a Seder! Everyone's seder has its own unique traditions. The Shapiro Family seder was always fun if not a bit non-traditional at times. Our non-Jewish friends would often join us to celebrate and learn our story of freedom.

When Sarah and I got married, I was sometimes resistant to changes to the traditions I had grown accustomed to. However, as Sarah and I started hosting our own holidays and seder, I loved the freedom we enjoyed in developing our own traditions and making it our own. While the core remains true to the holiday, we are able to make the night both educational and enjoyable.

We are fortunate that our community and financial well-being gives our Congregation the freedom to make our synagogue what we collectively wish it to be. As we enter the spring, I encourage you to continue to share your ideas with us and as to how we can move our congregation forward and breathe new life and traditions into Adath Israel.

SEARCH COMMITTEE UPDATE

As you may have heard, Rabbi Cecelia (Cece) Beyer has declined our invitation to become our Rabbi. Although we're disappointed in her decision, our goal has always been to find the right fit and a Rabbi who is willing to become part of our congregation on a long term basis.

We have quickly broadened our search beyond the Rabbinical Assembly and have posted our application with the Academy of Jewish Religion and the Hebrew College. These are both highly respected pluralistic seminaries, meaning that they ordain Rabbis from all denominations. The curriculum for these schools provides the same level of preparation as the Jewish Theological Seminary and Conservative Rabbis have more recently chosen these schools for their broader student base and relevant coursework. It is our hope that this expanded search will offer more candidates of a higher caliber than those that we received from the Rabbinical Assembly.

We look forward to presenting new candidates to our congregation(s) in the coming months.

Sandra Beckman, Search Committee Chair

Thumim Scholarship Funded by Mark and Luanne Paley An Investment in our Jewish Future

The Thumim Scholarship is pleased to announce camp scholarships are available again this year to Adath Israel families whose children will attend Jewish camp or travel to Israel. Multiple studies show the Jewish camp experience provides long term positive effects on Jewish identity and other life choices. During their lifetime, the Thumims, longtime members of Adath Israel, provided funds for these camp scholarships. Since their deaths, the camp scholarships have relied on individual donations, largely raised in honor of our Volunteer(s) of the Year. Last year and going forward into the future, Mark and Luanne Paley have committed to help fund these scholarships with a significant donation. Individual donors are still needed to maximize the number of families this scholarship can assist. Please consider donating to the Thumim Scholarship throughout the year whenever you send a card, observe a yahrtzeit, celebrate a life cycle event or to honor the Volunteer(s) this year in the fall.

THE THUMIM SCHOLARSHIP FUNDED BY MARK AND LUANNE PALEY APPLICATION

Please note: only members current in their obligations to the synagogue are eligible to receive scholarship.

To be considered for a scholarship, please complete the application below and return it to the Synagogue office by April 15, 2019. Awards are based on the number of applications and funds available. Camps/Israel trip financial statements are required with this application to process the request.

The Book Smugglers

by David Fishman

This is the unbelievable story of ghetto residents who rescued thousands of rare books and manuscripts - first from the Nazis and then from the Soviets - by hiding them on their bodies, burying them in bunkers and smuggling them across borders. It is a story of heroism and resistance, friendship and romance, and of unwavering devotion to literature and art.

Book Club News

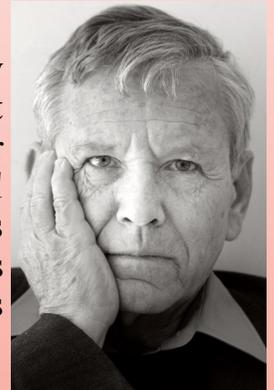

Many thanks to Carly Hoss for leading the discussion of Estee by Estee Lauder. What a wonderful idea to also check out YouTubes with members of the Lauder family for insights about Estee Lauder's personal and professional life! I think that we all agreed that Estee Lauder was a very strong and creative woman, who formed a company from nothing and turned it into a major cosmetics company. It was truly a family endeavor and still is. Thanks again Carly.

Here is the upcoming schedule:

April 23rd - Eva Bardwell will lead the discussion of The Book Smugglers by David Fishman. This is the unbelievable story of ghetto residents who rescued thousands of rare books and manuscripts - first from the Nazis and then from the Soviets - by hiding them on their bodies, burying them in bunkers and smuggling them across borders. It is a story of heroism and resistance, friendship and romance, and of unwavering devotion to literature and art.

June 4th - It was suggested that we read a book by Amos Oz in his memory. As many of you know, Amos Oz was a prominent Israeli writer who recently passed away. I asked Dalit Katz from the Center of Jewish Studies at Wesleyan for a suggestion. Dalit suggested reading A Tale of Love and Darkness by Amos Oz. It is a memoir that explores Oz's biography at a critical time in the history of the State of Israel. It combines personal history with national history. Anyone interested in leading this discussion?

We are also talking about having a movie night to see the film "A Price Above Rubies" and a possible field trip to the Tenement Museum in NYC.

I also reached out to Dr. Marc Dollinger to see if he would be available to speak to the Book Club about his new book Black Power, Jewish Politics: Reinventing The Alliance in the 1960s.

Stay tuned for more details.

2019 Chameitz Sales Contract

During Passover, we are prohibited from eating, and even from owning, chameitz (leavened bread or bread products). While we do our best to get rid of any chameitz in our homes, there is always some remaining, because we have missed it in our cleaning or it is too expensive to simply discard. To help us fulfill the mitzvah of not owning any chameitz, it is our custom to sell it for the holiday period. To sell your chameitz, please come to the synagogue where the appropriate forms and a representative of the ritual committee will be available. Rabbi Press will act as your agent, selling your chameitz just before Passover and purchasing it back immediately after. If at all possible, this transaction should be done in person. If you are unable to come to the synagogue or have a representative of the ritual committee visit you, you may include your household by completing the form below and returning it to the synagogue no later than Thursday, April 18th.

I HEREBY APPOINT RABBI PRESS TO SELL ON MY BEHALF ANY AND ALL CHAMEITZ IN MY POSSESSION, WHEREVER IT MAY BE STORED OR HELD. THE SALE WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE ON APRIL 19th, 2019 AT 10:00 a.m. YOU WILL REGAIN OWNERSHIP AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE 8TH DAY.
