WHAT'S IN A NAME?

by Rabbi Haaz

Through creating and editing one of the skits and sketches for this year's Purim Spiel, it became clear that most of our congregants do not know what the name of our synagogue, Adath Israel, means in Hebrew. While the lack of this particular piece of knowledge does not prevent prayer services from running or programs from being planned, this is unfortunate because our name was carefully chosen by the founders of our synagogue to embody certain values and to inspire us to achieve them. When we forget our name, we forget the intentions of our ancestors who built our Jewish community; we lose touch with our founding values and our identity. The name of our synagogue is one way that our ancestors continue to communicate with us today and transmit their hopes and dreams for our Jewish community. Although the phrase "Adat Yisrael" appears in the Bible a number of times and in several different formats, I believe that the founders of our beloved synagogue chose the name from I Kings 8:5, a verse from the Haftarah for the Torah portion P'kudei. The Torah portion, P'kudei, celebrates the completion of the Tabernacle, and this corresponding Haftarah from Kings celebrates the completion of the Temple and the role that the community played. I Kings 8:5

LOOKING TO OUR FUTURE

By Eileen Daling

Exciting things happen every day in our lives. Some are big, while others are small. However, whichever type they fall into, they are always life changing. It is no different here at Adath Israel. I would like to take this opportunity to make you aware of two very exciting things about to happen that will revolutionize Adath Israel profoundly into the future.

The first is the installation of an Assistive Listening System in the main sanctuary and large social hall that will make it easier for our hearing-impaired congregants to fully participate in our services and activities. On behalf of the Board, our members, and myself, I want to take this opportunity to thank Marc Glass, one of our newest members, for taking on this project and for all his hard work to accomplish this mission. It started him thinking when his mother attended last year's High Holy Days with us. It was difficult for her to follow the service, hear the speeches and understand Rabbi Haaz's D'var Torah. Marc jumped into action. He made a proposal to the Board to see if we would be interested in him pursuing information and the cost of such a system. He also suggested that he would investigate a possible funding source for this project. Now we find ourselves ready to complete the project reads, “Meanwhile, King Solomon and the whole Adat Yisrael, who were assembled with him before the Ark, were sacrificing sheep and oxen in such abundance that they could not be numbered or counted.” Here, “Adat Yisrael” means “community of Israel.”

There is an obvious parallel between building the ancient Temple and building our synagogue in Middletown, but the founders of our synagogue were more focused on the people than on the structure in their selection of this passage. While the context of I Kings 8:5 deals with the establishment of a centralized place for worship, this particular verse highlights the emotion and participation of the people. The entire community gathered in front of the ark, and, in their joy and optimism for the future, they brought so many offerings to God that their contributions were beyond measure. The people were passionate, joyful, energized participants, and their love of God, Torah, and the people Israel created a spiritual abundance. This is the moment to which our founding Middletown ancestors want us to connect each time we walk into Adath Israel, and we must recognize that it is only through the enthusiasm and participation of every member of our community that we will achieve this pinnacle of Jewish experience. Adath Israel is a beautiful dream that we inherited from our ancestors, and together we can realize this dream and celebrate Jewish life in spiritual abundance.

“...My cup overflows. Surely goodness and kindness will be my portion all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of God forever.” – Psalm 23

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

by Anna Elfenbaum

Religious School Principal

Spring is here and we are preparing for the last few sessions of Religious School. Our last day of school will be Sunday May 22, when we will celebrate with outdoor festivities. What a great year it has been. Our students come to class looking forward to learning and being with their friends and their teachers, teachers come with creative lessons and a deep desire to teach their students. Parents are participating in their children's education and are working on the Education Committee and attending Town Hall Meetings to help guide our school to an even stronger place. I would like to extend a big Todah Rabbah (thank you) to our students, faculty, volunteers, Rabbi Haaz, Sharon Ferrari and the leadership of Adath Israel for welcoming me so warmly and for helping me navigate my first year here.

DAN LAROSA SHOW

I have never been hypnotized before and I found it to be a very interesting experience. The Dan LaRosa show on March 26, was a lot of fun and enjoyed by those who did attend. I was very sorry to see the poor turn out and felt that those that did not come lost out on a wonderful evening. It was embarrassing that Dan had to entertain so few, but he is a trouper and preformed as if he had an audience of 100, I wish he did. It takes effort to organize Fundraising Programs, and the congregation's support would be appreciated.

I would like to thank my team for all their efforts, especially Lynn, for all the delicious homemade baked goodies. Good job Anita, Lynn, and Bobette.

with total funding thanks to Mr. Marc Glass and his mother, Mrs. Faye Glass from a grant made from the Glass/Lipman Family Fund, a donor advised fund of the Jewish Community Foundation established by Marc's grandparents, David A. and Esther S. Lipman. This system enables Adath Israel to move in the direction of a more inclusive future.

The second matter I want to make you aware of is the decision to purchase new High Holy Day prayer books. While our present prayer book was the latest and greatest for its time, it no longer works for our present congregational needs. The new prayer book, Mahzor Lev Shalem includes contemporary language, transliteration, a broad range of literature from rabbinic to modern poetry to assist one in capturing and experiencing the meaning of prayer and tradition. Rabbi Haaz spoke in an earlier Kolot about how the Ritual Committee has made the decision to secure this prayer book for the upcoming High Holy Days. Soon they will be sending out a letter asking for member support to purchase a book or books, or even to make a donation towards this purchase.

As your president, I am asking you to be part of moving us toward an exciting future for Adath Israel. Our future looks awesome but only if everyone joins in to be part of that future. I look forward to seeing this happen with everyone's help!

As always, please remember to check out the rest of this Kolot for more events and other exciting happenings in the months to come. Especially, watch for the date of the much anticipated dedication of our long overdue Holocaust Memorial.

LOOKING FOR A VOLUNTEER

On November 29, 2015, your Board of Directors met and voted to support the newly formed “Welcoming Middletown Fund” formed by the Middletown Interfaith Committee in conjunction with the Community Foundation of Middlesex County. This fund was established to assist 3 refugee families in the resettlement process in the greater Middletown area. The committee has been meeting on a regular basis (approximately 1x/month) to assist these refugees. It sends updates to Rabbi Haaz who has been forwarding them to me. Unfortunately, I have been amiss with finding someone to attend these meetings as Adath Israel's representative. Therefore, I am now looking for someone who would be willing to take on this task. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact me @edaling21@att.net or 860-346-0667 and I will be more than happy to discuss the details with you.

Thank you in advance,
