

SO MANY OPPORTUNITIES TO LEARN

by Rabbi Haaz

As I look at our synagogue calendar for May, I see that there are so many opportunities for us to study and discuss together. May kicks off with a weekend of learning with Dr. Ora Horn Prouser as we explore issues of disability in the Bible and look at biblical characters as examples of individuals with special needs.* Our course on Jewish ethics designed by the Jewish Seminary will continue Theological each Wednesday at 2pm throughout May and will include the topics of "Advance Directives and the Ethics of End-of-Life Care," "Disabilities and the Ethics of Inclusion," "Surrogacy and the Ethics of Relationships," "Better than Normal? The Ethics of Enhancement," and "Is Lying Ever Ethical?" On Tuesday, May 15, I am thrilled to lead the discussion for the Book Club on Rabbi Naomi Levy's Einstein and the Rabbi: Searching for the Soul. And, just a few days after this rich discussion, we can join together on Saturday evening, May 19 to bring in Shavuot through the two powerful ancient rituals of cheesecake and late night Torah study. We will have the additional joy this Shavuot of being taught, in part, by our graduating religious school students. (Rabbi Continued on page 3)

THE FUTURE OF ADATH ISRAEL

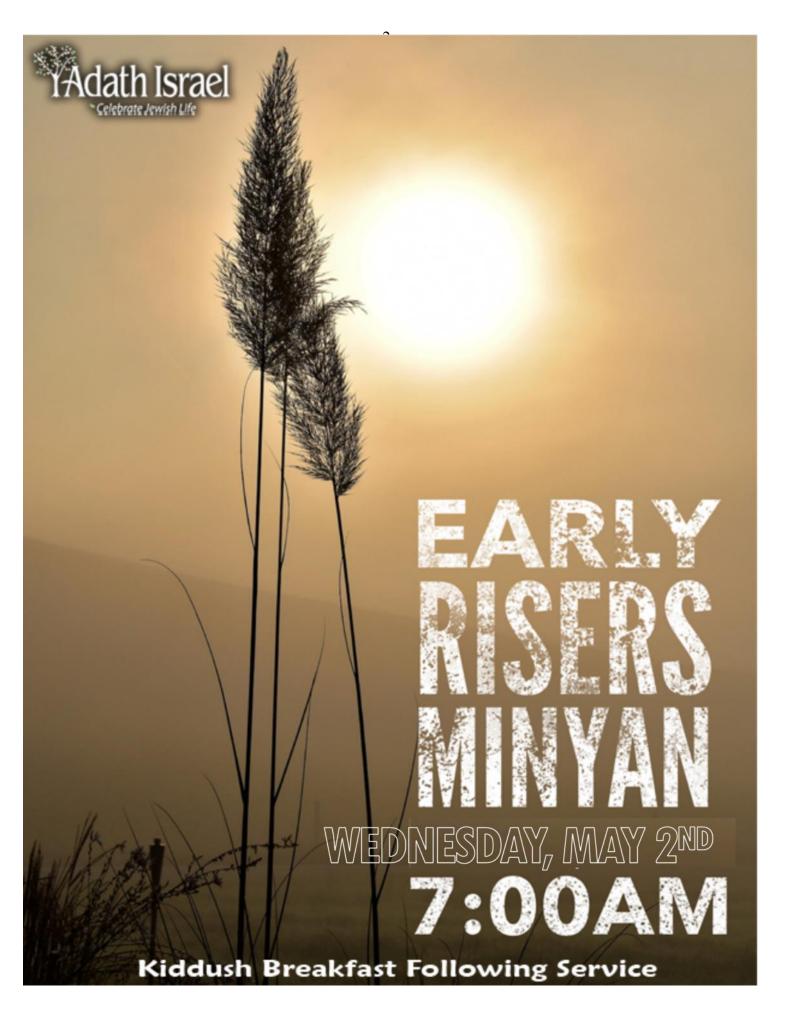

by Eileen Daling

We are at that time of year in our community again when new leadership will be voted on at our June Annual Meeting. First, I would like to thank all those members who served on our synagogue board for the past 3 years or more and those who will continue to serve. Since there are positions available, now is the time for everyone to search within themselves and step up to serve.

I know, I know, there is not enough time in the day for everything to get done. It's just an easy excuse. Everyone is busy. Yet many find the time to do the important needs of Adath Israel so it can continue to be a vital part of this Jewish community. Jonathan Shapiro is up for President at this year's Annual meeting. Unfortunately, no one has stepped up to take on the role as his Vice President. Jonathan cannot do this job alone. No one can.

Think about it. Perhaps there are things you would like to see changed or ideas that you would like to see developed here at Adath Israel. Stepping up to serve on the Board, chair or join a committee is the way for your voice to be heard and where you can make a difference. You can have your ideas happen. Of course, the Board is always open to

There are always opportunities to learn and grow at Adath Israel, but this May is an especially full month of Jewish study and discussion. And, in case it is still snowing, our passionate participation in these engaging topics will keep us warm.

Friday, May 4: "Esau's Blessing: A Closer Reading of the Biblical Text"

Dr. Horn Prouser will teach and celebrate Pray-Eat-Sing with us on Friday evening. The discussion will be an introduction to her unique methodology and an in-depth look at the character of Esau. The only way to attend the Pray-Eat-Sing dinner and interactive study is by RSVP. Please RSVP ASAP to Joanna in the main office because seating is limited!

Saturday, May 5: "Disability and the Contemporary Family: Learning From Biblical Models"

Dr. Horn Prouser will give a talk during the Torah Service on Shabbat morning and facilitate a discussion after lunch to discuss the impact of disability on family members. It is our hope that, in this intimate discussion, families would be comfortable to share their experiences, blessings, and challenges and offer support to one another.

Sunday, May 6: "Divine Disability: Created in the Image of God"

Dr. Horn Prouser's final presentation will focus on the provocative topic of God and disability. (Please note that while each event can stand on its own, this discussion on Sunday will be more rewarding if you are able to be present on Friday evening to be introduced to Dr. Horn Prouser's methodology.)

A TALK BY IRENE SILBERSTEIN ABOUT HER BOOK:

Sunday, June 3

11 am in the Nester Center

Shrink Wrappedby IreneSilvers (IreneSilberstein)isahumorous,contemporarylovestory.

Sophie Marks' boyfriend abandons her in a time of crisis and her widowed mother has become a femme fatale, acquiring a lover on the internet who may be spending all her money. Sophie turns to a psychologist for help and he asks her to keep a journal. The result is Shrink Wrapped, a witty and irreverent love story that tracks Sophie's remarkable, amusing journey to find empowerment and happiness in a world of messy relationships and surprising twists.

While this story is humorous, it has several underlying themes: the sensitivity of the mother/ daughter connection, the factors that influence male/ female relationships, the demands of friendship, and the power of family dynamics to shape behavior.

Note: the book will be available for purchase on June 3rd. It is also available on Amazon, paperback or Kindle.

Proceeds from sales at Adath Israel will be donated to the Synagogue.

Refreshments will follow the presentation.

discuss ideas, concerns and issues by members attending monthly Board meetings or talking to any member of the Board at any time.

Adath Israel needs and is asking for everyone's help! Please let the Nominating Committee (Jonathan Shapiro and Michael Sigal) know if you are interested in filling the Vice President position, join the Board or join any committee. If you have any suggestions for someone who might be a good fit for any of these positions, just let them know. They will reach out and ask. I cannot stress enough how important this matter is to all.

It is also very important for as many of you as possible to attend the Annual Meeting on June 3 at 9:30 am. A quorum is required to legally conduct the business of Adath Israel. Without a quorum, there can be no election of officers or board members, no approval of by-law changes and no approval of the new fiscal year's budget. This places us in a very difficult and untenable position with regard to running the business of the synagogue. Also, at 10:00 am the Annual Raffle drawing will be held during the meeting. Hope you bought or will be buying you raffle tickets. Can't win if you don't play!

If Adath Israel is important to you, you all must take this leadership situation seriously! Now is the time to act.

WORDS CAN'T SHOW HOW WE TRULY FEEL On behalf of the entire Daling Family, we wish to thank everyone in our Adath Israel family for their pray ers, support and kindness during the difficult time recently upon the pass ing of Marion Clara Daling, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Your thoughtfulness and friendships genuinely help to ease our loss.

WINDOW RENOVATION UPDATE

You may have noticed the south windows have been cleaned, repaired where possible, and outfitted with new Lexan protective coverings. Willet Hauser & Associated Crafts will return next week to finish off the west and north windows. In addition, the crew has replaced several areas of rotted wood which has been painted to match the color of the new aluminum frames. Weather permitting, the job should wrap up by April 27.

 All are invited to join us

(whether you get a chance to read the book for not) for a discussion led by Rabbi Haaz of this inspiring book that helps all of us reclaim our soul. As the book jacket says, Naomi Levy leads us on a "journey full of wisdom, empathy, humor and challenges us to wake up and heed the voice calling from within -- a voice beckoning us to become who we were born to be."

NAOMI LEVY's latest book is Einstein and the Rabbi. She is the author of the national bestseller To Begin Again, as well as Talking to God and Hope Will Find You.

Naomi is the founder and leader of Nashuva, a groundbreaking Jewish spiritual outreach movement based in Los Angeles. Levy was named one of the top-fifty rabbis in America by Newsweek.

She was in the first class of women to enter the Jewish Theological Seminary's rabbinical school and the first woman in her movement to head a congregation on the West Coast.

EXCITING NEWS

Recently an email blast went out to let everyone know about some exciting news. I was working on purchasing a Torah table that comes apart for easy moving from a Synagogue Furniture Company located in New York. It will be used in main sanctuary in the front right side of the bemah during the High Holy Days, B'nai Mitzvah celebrations and other life cycle events when there is someone present who finds the stairs up to the bemah difficult to climb. Other times it will be used in the museum room in the Nester Center for morning minyon. I was also looking to purchase from them a Torah Ark that would fit nicely into the alcove that was originally made for it in the Nester Center (museum room). The request was for donations, big or small for these purchases.

After that blast, the response was truly amazing. Many stepped up to donate. I immediately received a donation from Linda and Jack Adler for the Torah table in memory of their parents, Katie and Ralph (Mickey) Adler and Beatrice and Philip Cohn and a donation from Robert Poliner for the Torah Ark in memory of his brother, Myron Poliner. I wish to thank them and also the following for their kind donations: Myra & David Finkelstein, Roberta & Marc Glass, Howard Rosenbaum, Andrea Fassler, Marge Rosenblatt, Ann Stehney in memory of her father, Isadore Cycan, Marcia & Arthur Meyers, Barbara & Steven Weiss, Andrew & Anong Becker, Phyllis Waldman in memory of Arthur Waldman, Benjamin Goldstein, and Esther Eisner, and Teresa & Dave Shulman in memory of Marion Daling. These donations will make it possible for us to secure these items, in addition to books, tallitot, kippot and other ritual items for any services held in the Nester Center.

I personally wish to thank all for responding so quickly and making these generous donations to this important ritual project. I am looking forward to adding these important ritual items to our synagogue and have all able to use and enjoy them. This is a wonderful addition that will only enhance the spiritual life here at Adath Israel.

The 22ndAnniversary Interfaith Golf Open

Co-Sponsored by Congregation Adath Israel &Church of St. Mary

April 12, 2018

Dear Friends,

On August 7, 2018 we will host the 22ndAnniversary Interfaith Golf Tournament at the Portland Golf Club. We hope that you can join us again as we plan on providing another great tournament this year.

In October of last year, over 400 local students and support personnel attended a very successful "Bully Free Rally and Learning Event" at the Empower facility in Middletown sponsored by the Community Foundation of Middlesex County using funds raised from this tournament. In Portland, Youth Services was able to have students attend a program on "Empowerment", made available only through our funding. Every year your participation and support changes the lives of many in our community.

The I.G.O.T. continues to support the growth of the Interfaith Circle of Leadership, local food banks and other activities that benefit your neighbors. Your sponsorship of the 21st Annual Interfaith Golf Open, hosted by Congregation Adath Israel and the Church of St. Mary at the Portland Golf Club last August creates opportunities for many in our communities. Through your generous support, the Interfaith Golf Open distributed a record §82,000 to charities in Portland, Middletown and surrounding areas. Thank you!

The role of sponsors is critical for the tournament, because it is through this partnership with business and individuals that we raise the necessary funds to support key programs and outreach at Congregation Adath Israel and the Church of St. Mary. The golf committee and volunteers understand your commitment to promote positive change in our communities and ensure the funds are spent supporting people and programs by using less than 2% on average of the monies raised in overhead expenses.

Last year we had more than 140 golfers, 50 volunteers from the Synagogue and the Church, and invited additional dinner guests with whom we shared the names of our generous sponsors. With your help we expect the tournament to continue to grow in 2018 and to provide a great way for our sponsors to receive positive exposure in the Middlesex County area.

Working together is a sign of our mutual care and respect, and your participation makes a difference. This tournament is successful due to your generosity. Thank you for considering our request. A member of the Golf Committee will follow up with you in the days ahead to secure your sponsorship for 2018!
