GREETINGS TO EVERYONE

As I introduce myself: Rabbi Marshal Press, your interim Rabbi.

My service as a Rabbi has been over forty-five years, and I'm still serving in my ordained role, and I must say "I have a little experience". If anyone wishes to meet with me please call the synagogue office to set up an appointment. Otherwise I look forward to meeting with you at services.

My current position is one of the Chaplains at Connecticut Valley Hospital, Middletown, Connecticut. If you need to contact me, please call 860-930-3318 with any suggestions you might have concerning our synagogue. I am always interested in hearing from you as there is always room for improvement. I would love to speak with you, so please feel free to come forward and set up a time for us to interact. Let us strive together for the benefit of Judaism, our synagogue and our relationship with the Almighty.

Have a blessed month.

My best,
Rabbi Marshal Press

THRIVING

by Jonathan Shapiro

As I said in my last column, many changes are on the horizon, and the next months will provide us the opportunity to build for our future and build the future we want. Despite the changes that lie ahead, there is one thing I hope does not change—our commitment to each other.

I see this commitment in so many different ways despite our relatively small size. We see it at the annual Interfaith Golf Open which, with the steady leadership of David Director and Marc Levin and the committee including Jack Adler, Eileen and Michael Daling, Stan Sadinsky, and Mike Sigal, again raised over $100,000 this year. We see it with the continued beautification of our synagogue under the caring eye of Marge Sadinsky.

I see the same commitment every Sunday when I bring my kids to Hebrew School. The enthusiasm of our students is evident. My kids truly enjoy going each week—I am not sure I did with their level of excitement when I was their age.

We see it in the donations we are receiving in response to the Annual Appeal. We see it at Pray, Eat, Sing. We see it during Shabbat Services. We see it in our morning minyan. No full-time rabbi, no problem. While we are fortunate to have Rabbi Press joining us for the year, we have shown that our sum is greater than our parts. We saw it as Eileen and Michael Daling renewed their wedding vows to mark their 50th Wedding Anniversary (with cameo appearances by Rabbi Haaz and Cantor Yager).

And I can see it as we begin our search for a new rabbi. The search for a full-time rabbi is just beginning, and we will keep you informed each step of the way. As you all know, we recently sent questionnaires to the congregation so we could receive as much input as possible as we embark on this search. We asked for your thoughts, your concerns and your desires. And I cannot believe how many of you responded. Our Search Committee, led by Sandra Beckman, is reviewing the responses as we prepare the questionnaire for the application process and you can all rest assured that your responses will frame our search. There are many different perspectives, and we will do our best to consider all the input we received in this process.

Despite the constant commitment, we always have a need for more volunteers. We will need this commitment as our talks with Meriden progress. Each week, we are getting closer, and volunteers will be necessary.

To quote Abraham Lincoln, "Commitment is what transforms a promise into a reality". We must promise that our synagogue will thrive for many more generations. With your continued commitment, we will make that a reality.

ADATH ISRAEL LIBRARY RE-OPENS

The library at Adath Israel is being rehabilitated. The Fiction books are organized and ready to go.

If you want to borrow a book, please take its book card and write your name and an estimated return date, and give the card to Joanna. Books are arranged alphabetically by author, and alphabetically by title within each author. A few of us are starting to re-organize the non-fiction books. If anyone wants to help, please let Joanna in the office, know!

Thank you.

BEAUTIFICATION UPDATE

By now I'm sure that the "secret" is out! - The renovation and much needed facelift of the Ladies Lounge is nearing completion. We're so excited to have you check it out. Prepare yourself for the amazing results!

What a pleasure to see the old and worn disappear, and welcome updated furnishings, soothing color choices, beautiful lighting, lovely window treatment. Witness the handsome carpet tiles which now extend throughout the hallway and into the lounge area. Let us know if you miss the pink ceramic tiles.

How did this all happen?? ---- Contributions from all of you to the Howard Feldman Beautification Fund. Donations large and small, "in honor of", "in memory of", "thanks for", etc., etc. Thank you, thank you, one and all who have supported the beautification of our treasured building.

Also, please notice the lovely piece of art in the lounge, donated by Joanna Schnurman. It reflects Adath Israel's 'Tree of Life' theme.

Thank you, simply perfect!

Is this newly appointed area complete? No, not yet. In order to finish the job we would greatly appreciate monetary donations to the fund for the following wish list:

- ++ baby changing items
- ++ air conditioner (wall unit)
- ++ frame for recycled original mirror
- ++ two (2) white replacement sinks with faucets in lav area
- ++ counter top for sink area

Many thanks for your continued support.
Stay tuned for further updates.

Marge Sadinsky

WORK DAY THANKS

As in our own homes, over the years items get saved, collected, and stored but really aren't needed. Here at Adath Israel we also accumulate stuff. Therefore, I proposed an Adath Israel Work Day. A few volunteers came forward to help clean out one the Religious School classrooms that somehow became a gathering place for unwanted/unneeded items. First, I want to thank Anna and Lynn for going through the room after the end of Religious School to take a good look at what had accumulated and remove any items that could really be used elsewhere. It made the clean-up work day a lot easier. Next, I want to give a BIG thank you to my husband, Jodi Gendrich, Hinda Niemeyer, Carolann Schwartz for volunteering to help with this project. Finally, thanks to Sharon Slossberg's son, Chad for getting rid of all of the metal items to further clean out the room. There is still a few heavier items that need to be brought upstairs to our garbage can area, so the city can pick it up. Anyone interested in helping with that can contact me. Once this is done, the room can serve a more useful purpose and it is my understanding that it might become a library room for the Religious School.

Thanks again to all. Watch for our next Work Day date.

BLOOD DRIVE

Just want to thank all who participated and or volunteered to work this year's August Blood Drive. There were 30 donors (seven first time donors) and we collected 25 pints of blood. Thanks to Mike Lafontaine for boiling the needed eggs and to Michael Daling for helping me make the tuna and egg salad sandwiches for the volunteers. Our sincerest thanks to those who manned either the registration desk or the canteen on the day of the drive: Roberta Glass, Anita Hennessey, Carly Hoss, Richard Kamins, Arlene Pressman, Carolann Schwartz, Carol Shapiro, Sharon Slossberg, Mark Stein, Harriet Thiela.

Adath Israel has been doing two blood drives a year for many years. I took over from Hortie Kabel z'l quite a few years ago when I still worked in the office. When I retired, I asked for a volunteer to take over as lead coordinator. Sharon Slossberg stepped up and I thank her for the years of service. Now, we find ourselves in need of that lead coordinator again. It really is not a time consuming, daunting job. In fact it is pretty simple. I will still volunteer to donate and make the sandwiches that we provide the donors. Sharon will still be available to man the registration or canteen at the end of the drive and be able to lock the building. What is really needed is someone to liaison with Red Cross on dates (always a Tuesday in February and August) and make phone calls for volunteers to work those drives. I would be happy to assist you with all you need to do the job for an easy transition. Like I said, it is maybe a few weeks before the drives and some time the day of the drives. If you are interested in stepping up to volunteer please contact me at edaling1@gmail.com or at 860.346.0667.

CHERVA KADISHA

The Chevra Kadisha is seeking a new Chairperson to manage the Cemetery on Pine Street. One can serve as Chair and not participate in the Ritual of Taharah. The Chair needs to be available to communicate with our cemetery service and the involved funeral home for the preparation of the gravesite. These tasks occur from the time of our receiving notice of a death to the completion of the burial.

The Chevra Kadisha is also in need of newer volunteers, men and women, to insure that the congregation can continue to provide for our members at the end of life. When invited to volunteer, most often people express their aversion to the idea of handling a deceased individual. Many who expressed initial hesitation found that the experience was not as expected but a gentle act of caring for a congregant of our synagogue.

Please contact the synagogue office at (860) 346-4709 to express your interest in volunteering.

Please also note: The finances of the synagogue and the cemetery are separate entities by law. There is no line in the synagogue budget that is related to the cemetery, its management or care. That all comes from donations directed to the Chevra Kadisha and on the limited annual earnings of a very small endowment. Please consider an annual directed donation to the Chevra Kadisha as part of your plan for giving and consider the funding needs of the cemetery in your estate planning.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

by Anna Elfenbaum Religious School Principal

What a wonderful start to a new year. As always, the school is a lively place to be on Wednesday afternoons and Sunday mornings. On Wednesdays students in grades 3-6 begin with a healthy snack and then move right into Hebrew where we hone our decoding skills and work on T'filah and modern Hebrew too. A highlight is watching SpongeBob in Hebrew and looking for words we know by reading the subtitles! Because we have a small teacher to student ratio, we are able to be sure that Hebrew learning is highly individualized, based on each student's level.

Sundays we welcome our youngest Mazel Tots, our first and second graders and our Madrichim – who have already become b'nai mitzvah. Our youngest students are introduced to Hebrew, prayer, Torah, holidays, and so much more through song, art, food, movies, games and stories. Our oldest students are involved in a combination on doing, learning and teaching. They are in the process of creating a comfy and user-friendly library space, thinking about contemporary issues through a Jewish lens and acting as leaders, mentors and role models during our community art time at the end of our day.

In addition to ongoing music program, access to technology and individualized support of students who need some extra help, this year we have introduced a few new initiatives. Every Sunday we have community art program, where students come together to create projects to highlight a holiday or parsha. We are looking forward to creating special projects for Chanukah, Havdalah and more. We have also started working with a new Hebrew program in which students earn different colored bead necklaces as they progress through the levels. Students are excited and motivated to move up every few weeks.

A special feeling exists in the school and we encourage congregants to stop by, get involved and share your talents with us.

NEW MENU, COSTS, AND PROCEDURES FOR SPONSORED KIDDUSH

Share a family simcha, honor a friend or relative, or remember a loved one by sponsoring a Friday night Oneg Shabbat or a Morning Kiddush. This is a delightful way to let others in our community celebrate a special occasion or share a memory with you. Our hope is that you would be present which will only add to the occasion.

The new Kiddush menus will be prepared and tastefully arranged by the Crown Supermarket in West Hartford. Please call the synagogue office at 860-346-4709 at least a week in advance to make ordering and pick-up arrangements with the office administrator.

The following is a breakdown of the new menus and costs for a Morning Kiddush:

Regular Simple Kiddush (25-30 people): $240

Small Simple Kiddush (15 people): $150

Regular Deluxe Kiddush (25-30 people): $420

Small Deluxe Kiddush (15 people): $225

Of course, you can always purchase the food, bring it to the synagogue and do the set up yourself while also following the synagogue's Kashrut guidelines. Some assistance may be available on the day of your Kiddush.
